Paragon Relocation announces appointment of Anna Waters, Director of Global Business Development

IRVING, Texas – November 9, 2010 – Paragon Relocation, a leading provider of global relocation solutions, is pleased to announce the appointment of Anna Waters as Director, Global Business Development covering the north central United States plus much of Canada.

“Anna brings a wealth of human resources experience and knowledge with her into this new position. We are very fortunate to have someone with her global mindset on our team,” said Glenn Chapman, Global Vice President of Business Development with Paragon Relocation.

Waters has more than 11 years of experience partnering with mid/large-sized, multinational organizations to identify and develop global human resource strategies. As Director, Global Business Solutions with Shepell-fgi, Anna spent almost seven years specializing in global health and productivity solutions for international clients. She also worked as a consultant for Hewitt Associates LLC where she focused on linking people strategies to business objectives, as well as initiating and managing consulting engagements on a project by project basis.

Waters has a Masters degree in Human Resource Development from the University of Minnesota and is fluent in English and Spanish and conversant in Italian, French, and Danish. She lived abroad in Europe for 18 years and holds dual citizenship in Denmark and the United States.
