Paragon's Craig Selders Awarded Senior Global Mobility Specialist Designation by Worldwide ERC®

IRVING, Texas – August 24, 2010 – Craig Selders of Paragon Relocation is a member of the first class ever to receive the prestigious Senior Global Mobility Specialist (SGMS) designation by Worldwide ERC®. Selders is among only 115 industry colleagues to hold the SGMS. The SGMS is awarded on the basis of continuing education credits as well as service points for considerable contributions of time and expertise to the industry through Worldwide ERC® activity. In addition, Selders also holds the Senior Certified Relocation Professional (SCRIP) designation from Worldwide ERC®.

“Craig is a valuable member of the Paragon staff and a great asset to the industry as a whole,” said Joseph Morabito, President and CEO of Paragon Relocation.

Selders is senior vice president at Paragon. His responsibilities include managing Paragon's global client base, global operations and overseeing the development of new Paragon subsidiaries. Selders has more than 30 years of industry experience and is based in Houston, Texas.
