Paragon Relocation announces appointment of Darrell Bockemehl, Director, Global Relocation Services

Coppell, Texas – September 2, 2011 – Paragon Relocation, a leading provider of global relocation solutions, is pleased to announce the appointment of Darrell Bockemehl as Director, Global Relocation Services based out of the North American Service Center in Coppell, TX.

“We are excited to welcome Darrell to Paragon to assist with providing excellent service to our relocation customers and clients. His vast experience in many facets of global relocation, including his expertise in global compensation and international tax, will truly be an asset as we support our growing client base around the world,” said Tom True, Vice President of Global Relocation Services with Paragon Relocation.

Bockemehl brings more than 11 years of global relocation management experience related to global operations, international assignment services and global compensation with firms such as Cartus, Primacy and Ernst & Young.

Bockemehl has an undergraduate degree in business from the University of North Texas.
