Paragon Relocation donates more than $6,000 to charity in 2010

IRVING, Texas – December 21, 2010 – Paragon Relocation, a leading provider of global relocation solutions, underscored the company’s commitment to its core value of community involvement through a number of charity initiatives. As a part of the employee donation matching program, Paragon has given $6,674 in financial contributions to various charities that are valued by Paragon employees.

In addition, through a new program introduced this year, Paragon made a $5 donation for each hour a Paragon employee worked for a charitable organization. Since October, when the program was introduced, 87 employee volunteer hours were paid, which equaled an additional donation of $345.

“We are excited and proud of our employees’ efforts to give both financially and through volunteer time during 2010. This is a reflection of what has always been a core value at Paragon and speaks volumes about the quality of our employees,” said Joseph Morabito, CEO of Paragon.

Most recently, Paragon employees held food drives in several communities, which resulted in donations of more than 200 lbs. of food to local food banks. Additionally, employees raised money through raffles and contests to benefit other charitable organizations, including Toys for Tots.
