Paragon Relocation Expands Operations Into the Benelux Countries

COPPELL, Texas – April 26, 2011 – Paragon Relocation, a leading provider of global relocation management services, underscored the company’s commitment to a growing global presence by expanding current operations in the Netherlands to encompass both Belgium and Luxembourg as well. While already providing service in the area through Paragon Relocation–Holland, this strategic expansion will allow more direct presence in region. The new Paragon Relocation–Benelux office will be led by Geoff Mills, Director of Global Relocation Services.

Mills moved from the UK to the Netherlands in 1996 and worked as section head/project manager for Philips in Nijmegen. He has worked in the relocation industry more than 6 years. Most recently, he was the managing director of Paragon Relocation–Holland. As Director of Global Relocation Services for Paragon Relocation–Benelux, Mills will focus on both operations and account management responsibilities within the region as well as in the UK and Ireland.

“We are excited about the new possibilities that are now opened to us as we plan for our future expansion throughout Europe. We now have significant presence in the Benelux region and expect to see tremendous growth in this area,” said Liam Brennan, managing director of Paragon Relocation’s Dublin office.
