Paragon Relocation Opens New Office in France

COPPELL, Texas – June 30, 2011 – Paragon Relocation, a leading provider of global relocation management services, underscored the company’s commitment to a growing global presence by opening a new office in Paris, France. The addition of a French location will enhance Paragon Relocation’s services throughout Europe and further enhance its global presence. The new Paragon Relocation–France office will be led by Julien Bec, Director of Global Relocation Services.

Bec joins from NOVA Relocation where he held the role of Country Manager for France. Prior to that, he held roles with SIRVA Relocation and Adecco. He brings more than six years of relocation experience to Paragon’s operation in France. As Director of Global Relocation Services for Paragon Relocation–France, Bec will focus on both operations and account management responsibilities within the region with a special focus on managing day-to-day operations in France.

“We are thrilled to have a director of Julien’s experience join Paragon. As we continue to see growth in France, we believe that this office will further expand and strengthen our service capabilities within the region,” said Liam Brennan, Managing Director of Paragon Relocation.
