Paragon Relocation announces appointment of Scott Williamson, Manager of Global Business Development

IRVING, Texas – November 9, 2010 – Paragon Relocation, a leading provider of global relocation solutions, is pleased to announce the appointment of Scott Williamson as Manager, Global Business Development covering the southern United States region.

“We are excited and proud to bring Scott on-board to focus on expanding our reach throughout his territory. His knowledge of the area as well as his background in the industry will no doubt prove instrumental to our success,” said Glenn Chapman, Global Vice President of Business Development with Paragon Relocation.

Williamson brings 25 years of sales experience and has relocated over 2,000 customers by serving in various capacities in the mortgage, real estate, van line and corporate relocation industries throughout the span of his career.

Williamson has an undergraduate degree in Marketing from West Georgia College. He holds the Certified Moving Consultant (CMC) designation from the American Moving and Storage Association, the national trade association for the professional moving industry, as well as earned Texas licenses as a REALTOR® and as a loan officer.
