Paragon Relocation announces appointment of Thomas True, Vice President of Global Client Relations

IRVING, Texas – September 24, 2010 – Paragon Relocation, a leading provider of global relocation solutions, is pleased to announce the appointment of Thomas True as Vice President of Global Client Relations. In this capacity, True will manage a portfolio of clients based in the West Coast region.

True comes to Paragon with a wealth of relocation and leadership experience, having served in the industry for more than 20 years. In his most recent position, he was Vice President, Global Client Services for Cartus, where he was responsible for the strategic planning, direction and development of the western region's global service delivery professionals. Before being named Vice President, he was Director of Client Services responsible for a global client portfolio. True's experience encompasses both account management and operations. In addition, he has had short-term overseas assignments in Australia and the United Kingdom.

"Tom has a great deal of industry experience, and he has proven to be an excellent business leader. We are excited about having Tom join Paragon, and we are looking forward to his positive contributions to our organization," said Craig Selders, President of Paragon Relocation.

True holds his Certified Relocation Professional (CRP) designation from Worldwide ERC® and is a Six Sigma Green Belt certified by Villanova University. He is an executive board member of the Southern California Relocation Council and is currently serving as the treasurer. He has an undergraduate degree from Central Connecticut State University.
