

Benefits:

- » A personal career consultant
- » Skills and interest assessment
- » Analysis of corporate development readiness
- » Mentoring programs

Career Coaching

Career coaching is a means of enhancing management and leadership skills to benefit both the employee and the organization. By establishing attainable goals, recipients of coaching focus on practical and strategic steps to reach performance excellence.

Why Career Coaching? It is proven to yield an average return of more than five times the initial investment.